+MyDirections Job Advert

Charity shop volunteer

Location: Halifax

Posted: 12th November 2026

Employer: Sue Ryder

Role type: Volunteering

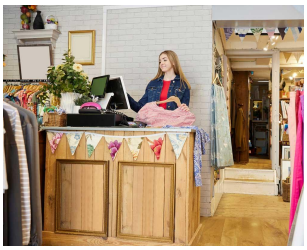
Entry Requirements:



Sue Ryder is a charity that provides care and support for people with life-limiting illnesses or grief. The charity runs over 400 shops across the UK selling donated items such as clothing, furniture, books, music and much more.

Business

Charity shop

Training provided

Induction and on-the-job training

Pay details

None - this is a voluntary position

Hours

Flexible to fit round your availability

Minimum age

18

Description

You can gain valuable work experience in customer service including:

- Using the till
- Sorting and pricing donations
- Creating attractive displays

Everyone is offered a relaxed taster session to meet the team and see what volunteering involves, with no pressure to commit. We also offer travel expense reimbursement for eligible volunteering sessions of at least two hours on the same day, and volunteers receive 50% off donated goods after 12 weeks.

How to apply

Email Leah at leah.rubin@sueryder.org with your name, phone number and preferred shop (Sue Ryder Halifax), and Leah will be in touch to arrange your taster session.

To enquire about this role: