+MyDirections Job Advert

Junior Journalist Apprenticeship - BBC Sport (Sept 2027 start)

Location: Salford

Posted: 10th November 2026

Employer: BBC

Role type: Apprenticeship

Entry Requirements:

BBC Sport is the largest sports website and app in the UK. It is the most popular service of its kind for audiences across the country, covering live sport and sports news, while also providing great entertainment for sports fans through content such as videos, quizzes and engaging interviews. The team also delivers sports news coverage on iPlayer and across national and global radio.

Business

Broadcasting

Training provided

Level 5 Journalist Apprenticeship leading to NCTJ Diploma in Journalism

Pay details

£24,650 pa

Requirements

- GCSE maths and English at grades 9-4
- Naturally curious about people and what's happening in the world around you, with a keen interest in sport
- Full of creative ideas and enjoy finding innovative ways to tell engaging stories
- Enjoy finding things out, asking questions and getting to the heart of a story
- Enthusiasm for writing and enjoy communicating complex ideas in a clear compelling way
- You thrive in a fast-paced environment, bringing flexibility, motivation and a willingness to adapt as priorities change

Minimum age

18

Description

As a Junior Journalist apprentice, this is a brilliant opportunity to learn, grow and contribute. On this team you can expect to:

- Work alongside experienced journalists developing your skills while creating high-quality content
- Get hands on experience including researching stories, booking guests and writing briefs
- Discover and develop compelling stories, assisting with interviews that bring important issues to life for diverse audiences
- Learn from industry experts at the world's largest public service broadcaster

How to apply

For more information, and how to apply, please see the BBC Careers website.

To enquire about this role:

