+MyDirections Job Advert

Construction Support Technician Advanced Apprentice (Sept 2027 start)

Location: Leeds

Posted: 17th November 2026

Employer: AtkinsRéalis

Role type: Apprenticeship

Entry Requirements:

We are AtkinsRéalis, a world-class engineering services and nuclear organisation. Our work covers a variety of sectors, including transportation, infrastructure, environment, water, energy, defence, technology, and aerospace.

Business

Engineering

Training provided

Level 3 Construction Support Technician

Pay details

£22,500 - £30,784 pa depending on the role and the apprenticeship level

Requirements

- 4 GCSEs at grades 4 or above including English and maths
- A curious mindset and enthusiasm for solving real-world challenges
- A collaborative working style
- Enthusiasm and drive

Minimum age

18

Description

Joining our structures team, you'll be at the heart of ground?breaking building design. Tackle optimized structural engineering solutions for some of the most intricate projects in the field. You'll work with diverse materials and learn cutting?edge construction methods. Get hands?on with the latest in parametric design and automated analysis while also playing a role in shaping a sustainable future with low?carbon building materials. From initial concepts to detailed technical evaluations, you'll contribute to high ?profile projects in aviation, housing, and energy.

How to apply

For more information and to apply, please see the website.

As our Apprenticeships are incredibly popular, apply early as some roles may close sooner than advertised.

To enquire about this role: