+MyDirections Job Advert

Environmental, Social and Governance (ESG) Apprentice (September 2026 start)

Location: Leeds

Posted: 16th July 2026

Employer: Ring Automotive

Role type: Apprenticeship

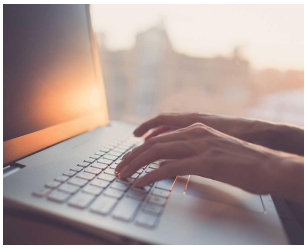
Entry Requirements:



At Ring Automotive, we're a fast-moving, innovative company, constantly developing new products while exploring new opportunities and markets. As part of OSRAM Automotive, we share a wider ambition: to be the first choice in a changing automotive world.

Business

Automotive products

Training provided

Level 4 Corporate responsibility and sustainability practitioner

Pay details

£25,000 pa

Hours

37.5 per week

Requirements

- Organised, methodical and capable of working under own initiative
- Able to work to a deadline to ensure reports are issued to key members of the business in a timely manner
- Strong numerical and analytical skills
- Confident using Microsoft Excel and other Office tools
- Good communication skills
- Attention to detail
- Interest in sustainability, environmental issues, or ESG

Minimum age

16

Description

Day-to-day tasks include:

- Monitoring and analysing energy, waste, and carbon footprint data for annual sustainability reporting
- Coordinating reporting for compliance with plastic packaging tax (PPT) and extended producer responsibility (EPR)
- Maintaining and improving Environmental Management Systems (EMS) and supporting audits
- Implementing sustainability initiatives, such as waste reduction or energy efficiency projects
- Acting as a point of reference for ESG, collaborating with departments and driving positive change
- Preparing presentations, reports, and marketing materials regarding ESG progress

- Keeping up to date with environmental legislation, industry trends, and best practices

How to apply

Please apply on the Find an Apprenticeship website.

To enquire about this role: